BUSINESS SUPPORTING BUSINESS

That's What We Do!

Whether you're looking to build new professional relationships, get involved in community networking, want to make a positive local impact, or interested in professional development, we've got you covered! There is a tremendous value in your Chamber membership.

In fact, a national study shows that people are 80 percent more likely to do business with chamber members. We love those odds.

Known as a big-picture, can-do organization, the Howell Chamber regularly collaborates with public and private groups on events, programs, proposals, projects and initiatives that aim to grow business and serve the greater good of our community.

There's no better business and community champion around.
