

LIVINGSTON'S LEADERSHIP LEVELUP

This six-week workshop aims to enhance leaders' strengths and talents through the art of leadership coaching and storytelling. Each week will focus on different aspects of leadership while weaving in personal style, brand development, influence, service, and legacy.

Benefits of LevelUp

- ✓ Experience the power of coaching and storytelling in leadership and development
- ✓ Use the DiSC® Work of Leaders Profile assessment to support a personalized approach to building a vision, alignment, and execution strategy
- ✓ Develop approaches for influence, communication, creativity, and sharing a personal leadership legacy
- ✓ One-to-one coaching sessions with an executive leadership coach to support personal and professional reflection
- ✓ Work with a community of leaders to develop, refine, practice, and showcase your story for the Livingston County Community

Who Should Enroll

- ✓ Seasoned leaders wanting to showcase their leadership story
- ✓ Aspiring leaders who have a passion for developing others

Why We Designed this Workshop

The Livingston Leadership LevelUp experience is designed to accelerate leaders for the practice of durable skills in leadership, critical thinking, adaptability, and lifelong success. The focus is on practical application and meaningful values to one's true identity and strengths as a leader. These workshops are anchored in the DiSC® Work of Leaders framework, aligned to each person's leadership identity and vision, and supported with personalized reflection and coaching.

The six-week LevelUp workshops are designed using a variety of modalities, including in-person facilitation, self-paced learning modules and resources, 1:1 coaching, and public performance. Topics include:

Lessons in Leadership · Discover your Uniqueness · Navigating Conflict Leading through Change · High-Impact Feedback · Resiliency & Growth

About Keider Consulting Group

Keider Consulting Group is a Livingston County-based coaching, consulting, and leadership development organization focused on developing people as they pursue their aspirations for leadership greatness. Executive Director, Julia Keider, is a trained coach with Thinking Collaborative, an HR professional, and former Livingston County public school educator. For the last ten years, Julia has remained committed to modeling and practicing coaching and leadership strategies for clients to practice on their own, incorporating best practices in teaching and adult learning. Finding the balance of learning strategies and practicing them, clients discover leadership through strategy, incorporating productive communication skills, and elevating others to find their talents and strengths.

Julia is an Authorized DiSC® Partner, a certified professional with the Association for Talent Development (CPTD), a SHRM certified professional (SHRM-CP), a volunteer leader with LAHRA, and a two-time graduate from Eastern Michigan University.

Certification Credits

In partnership with Livingston Area Human Resource Association (LAHRA), these six sessions and showcase can earn up to 20 credits through the Society for Human Resource Management (SHRM) and the Human Resource Certification Institute (HRCI). Credit codes will be distributed at the end of the workshop series.
